NOTICE OF ATTACHMENT.

D. J. McDonald

vs.

W. S. Burleson.

State of Tennessee, Washington County.)

In this cause it appearing by affidavit that the defendant, W. S. Burleson, is justly indebted to the plaintiff, and is a non-resident of the state of Tennessee, so that the ordinary process of law can not be served on him, and an original attachment having been levied on his property, it is therefore ordered that publication be made in The Comet, a newspaper published in Johnson City, Washington county, Tennessee, for four successive weeks, commencing this said W. S. Burleson to appear before me, at my office in the Weiler-Messingill, in the 9th civil district of said state and county, in the town of Johnson City, on the 21st day of August, 1908, and make defense to said suit against him, or it will be proceeded with ex parte. P. Q. MILLER, Justice of the Peace.

Vines & Price, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Wade-Sperow Marriage.

On Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the Methodist Episcopal church, south, the marriage ceremony of Miss Nellie Wade and Mr. Brown F. Sperow was beautifully solemnized.

The softly-lighted church was effectively decorated with ivy, ferns and sweet peas, and never presented a more attractive appearance to the friends who gathered to witness the event.

Before the ceremony Miss Lotta Hobson, of Bristol, very pleasingly sang "All For You" and "O Perfect Love." As Mrs. Ellis W. Shuler, of Nashville, a cousin of the bride, and a pianist of the highest rank, played the opening measures of Mendelssohn's beautiful march, the bridal party entered the church and took their respective places about the altar.

The bridesmaids, Misses Eva Lyle, Ethel Smith and Rubie Hobson, and the maid of honor, Miss Ella Burrow, were gowned in white figured net over tulle, the color scheme of pale blue and pink being used. They carried immense shower bouquets of sweet peas.

The bride's gown was of white tulle, silk beautifully trimmed with chiffon fillet and lace, and her bouquet was of bride's roses, maiden hair fern and valley lilies. She entered on the arm of her father, who gave her away, while the groom was accompanied by his brother, Dr. W. H. Sperow, of West Virginia.

The groomsmen were Messrs. L. O. Barker, Jr., A. P. Walker and Julian Campbell, while Messrs. John and George Wade, James Beckner and Virgil Slaughter acted as ushers.

The marriage ceremony was impressively said by the Rev. S. B. Vaughn, assisted by Rev. J. Edmund Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Sperow left at 6 o'clock for West Virginia where they will be the guests of Mr. Sperow's relatives for two weeks. They will also visit Washington and Niagara Falls before returning to Johnson City.

The bride's going away gown was a three-piece suit of striped cloth, with trimmings of pale green velvet.

The bridal party and out of town guests were informally entertained at the home of the bride Tuesday evening in a very delightful manner. The decorations in green and white were strikingly effective and the color scheme was gracefully carried out in the refreshments. Neapolitan cream, cake, salted almonds and green and white mints. The feature of the evening was the cutting of the wedding cake, Miss Jennie Crumley being the fortunate recipient of the ring. Many handsome and valuable presents were received, thus attesting the esteem in which the young couple are held by their friends and relatives. The bride's gifts to her maids were dainty gold wish-bone pins set with pearls and rubies.

Among the out of town guests at the wedding were Dr. W. H. Sperow, North Fork, W. Va.; Mrs. H. G. Hickok, Roanoke, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wade, of Tazewell, Va.; Mrs. C. O.

Outworth, Miller's Falls, Mass.; Prof. and Mrs. Ellis Shuler, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. J. M. Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Hobson, Misses Lotta Hobson, Ethel Smith, Ella Burrow, Rubie Hobson and Mr. Henry I. Smith, of Bristol.

Mr. and Mrs. Sperow have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for a very long and happy life. As Miss Wade, the bride has long been a favorite in Johnson City. Mr. Sperow, although comparatively a new resident of the city, has since his connection with the engineering department of the C. O. & O., won the esteem and regard of numerous friends. He holds the responsible position of division draftsman.
